The principles of Identifying Deceptive Behavior (IDB) are field verified! Identifying Deceptive Behavior goes far beyond what is generally presented in traditional classroom settings. This well-documented class focuses on developing the self-confidence necessary to understand the frequent methods that people utilize to mislead officers each day. Through practical application, students utilize a variety of methods to expand the skills required for detecting verbal and nonverbal modes of deception. Through a series of lecture and practical-based programs, students learn to detect deception and avoid familiar pitfalls. This course will enhance the ability of students to close more cases and enhance officer safety.

Instructor:

Identifying Deceptive Behavior™ is presented by Detective Kurt Barbour of the DuPage County Sheriff's Office (IL). Kurt began his career with the Baltimore County Police Department before moving to Illinois where Kurt has had the opportunity of working 10 years as a Detective assigned to the Guns, Gangs and Drug Unit formerly known as SR-22. Of those 10 years, Kurt spent 4 years undercover attached to the Tactical Narcotics Team where he has had the pleasure of working several large cases with ATF, FBI, DEA, HSI and USPI. Kurt has conducted countless Interview and Interrogations as well as Tactical Debriefings of subjects. Kurt is also Commander of the METRO SWAT Crisis Negotiation Team (DuPage County, IL) where he continues to hone his skills.

Kurt (KBar Consulting LLC) is a Master Instructor for Homefront Protective Group, the nation's leading provider in reality based law enforcement training as well as instructor for Midwest Counterdrug Training Center (MCTC) and Northeast Counterdrug Training Center (NCTC).
