The CTK Group's Advanced Interview and Interrogation Course is specifically designed for officers and investigators whose primary focus is felony level cases. Built upon the foundational game plan from the Evidence-Based Interview and Interrogation Course, the Advanced Course challenges felony-level investigators to perfect their awareness of custody and voluntariness issues. Regardless whether you work sex abuses, narcotics, or homicides, the Advanced Class dissects the most recent published research on interview and interrogation from across the globe, including the High Value Detainee Interrogation Groups (HIG) work as it relates to cognitive interviewing, strategic use of evidence, and false confessions. We also tackle the ever-challenging issues of juvenile interrogation and interrogating inmates. This Advanced Interview and Interrogation Course is unlike any other course in the United States and is specifically designed for investigators looking to take their game to the next level.

Topics Include:

- Current National Issues
- Voluntariness
- Custody
- Cognitive Interview Techniques
- Persuasion and Social Influence
- Interviewing and Interrogations of Juveniles
- False Confessions
- Interrogations Inside Jails & Prisons
- Case Studies
- And more!

This training focuses on legally sound, research-based techniques for eliciting information from criminal defendants.

Instructors:

The CTK Group has trained thousands of police officers, fire investigators and correctional personnel. They are active investigators utilizing an evolving, court defensible game plan that every officer can use too!
