This four-day course will prepare instructor-candidates to perform in the classroom. It is a pre-requisite course for all LESB-approved specialized training courses. Competencies include planning and managing learning, training and evaluation methods, delivering teaching scenarios and other instructional strategies. Instructor-candidates will be expected to present in front of the class and be evaluated by their peers. They will also learn strategies for delivering and accepting constructive criticism in a controlled environment.

This curriculum is endorsed by the Law Enforcement Standards Board and is required of instructors seeking LESB certification.

Materials:

Students are required to bring a laptop (must have Microsoft Office 10 or newer) with PowerPoint installed and a flash drive.

Prerequisites:

Please complete the DJ-LE-335 located on WILENET and send to lkumbier@wctc.edu before 2/20/23. (This also includes a copy of your ACADIS transcripts and the DJ-LE-310 Release of Information as noted on the form.)

Instructors:

Lt. Gerald Habanek has been with the Waukesha Police Department for 25 years. Currently, he is assigned to the Criminal Investigations Division, but previously supervised Sensitive Crimes, Computer Forensics and Internet Crimes Against Children. Jerry earned a Bachelor's Degree in Italian and Behavioral Science and Law from UW-Madison. He obtained a Master's Degree in Criminal Justice from the UW-Milwaukee. He holds Instructor certifications from the State of Wisconsin Bureau of Training and Standards related to Criminal Investigation and sits on the Criminal Investigation Advisory Board for the State of Wisconsin. He is also a Senior Master Instructor for TASER International.

Lt. Joseph Hendricks has been a certified police officer in the State of Wisconsin since 2005. Joe holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Criminal Justice from UW-Platteville, a Master of Science Degree in Criminal Justice from the University of Cincinnati, and instructor certifications from the State of Wisconsin and the International Association of Chiefs of Police. Currently, Joe is a Police Lieutenant where he is responsible for supervising a shift of 30 personnel. Joe has experience leading and managing the patrol division, the criminal investigations division, and the narcotics and vice unit. As an instructor, Joe teaches courses in the police academy, conducts specialized training relating to alcohol and drug recognition, and teaches Criminology in the Associate Degree program at WCTC.
