CENTER FOR PUBLIC SAFETY

For more than 40 years, the NUCPS School of Police Staff & Command (SPSC) has offered an unparalleled education in public safety leadership and management that prepares experienced law enforcement professionals for success in senior command positions.

With a proven record of success, SPSC's unmatched academic curriculum focuses on areas critical to successful senior law enforcement leadership and management, such as strategic planning and policies, communications, organizational behavior, budgeting and resource allocation, human resources, recruiting, and more. This is the only program of its kind available through a Top Ten university.

In addition to lectures, their innovative curriculum features the practical application of academic principles plus course activities that encourage class members to learn from one another's experiences.

Topics Include:

- Critical Incidents
- Decision Making
- Employee Relations
- Human Resources & Employee Discipline
- Leadership Principals
- Officer Wellness
- Performance Appraisals & Job Design
- Traffic and More!

Students who successfully complete SPSC are better prepared to:

- Think globally rather than remain task-oriented
- Deliver services effectively and efficiently
- Successfully accomplish projects and tasks with people / teams
- Analyze the environment
- Mitigate legal exposure
- Develop systems of accountability

Participating students must have at least two years of supervisory experience.
Completion of Supervision of Police Personnel is highly recommended.

Registration:

In addition to registering at the WCTC link (left) participants will also need to create/update their account with NUCPS before 12/18/26.
